JULY 2018

“Stepping Out”

Our sincere thanks are extended to Director, Mark Horner, and the cast for the time and effort they put in to present our May production of the perennial favourite – “Stepping Out”.

Thanks also to all production team members, particularly Grahame Foster and Jeff Hockley.

A feature of this production was the out of town presentations at Longford and Scottsdale which required an extra effort from all involved. Judging from the smiles of our departing patrons “the old girl” is still able to charm!

Information Night

Our productions for 2019 have been organized and we are pleased to announce that in May “1984” will be directed by Megan Jolly, and in September, “Picnic at Hanging Rock” will be directed by Peter Hammond.

An information night outlining all aspects of these productions will be held at the Earl Arts Centre on TUESDAY 31st JULY. Refreshments will be served at 6.30pm and proceedings will commence at 7.00pm.

We look forward to seeing all potential cast and crew members on this night.
